

PREMIUM & AGED SHIRAZ & SHIRAZ BLENDS

2006 PARINGA ESTATE "Estate" Mornington Peninsula Shiraz $160

James Halliday : "Vivid crimson; bright, fresh, highly spiced, peppery red fruits on a medium-bodied but very long palate, the tannins silky and fine. Outstanding cool-climate shiraz. Drink by: 2021 Rating : 95 Points"

WC

2006 PARINGA ESTATE "Reserve" Special Barrel Selection Mornington Peninsula Shiraz $195

James Halliday 2008 : Saturated colour; significantly greater volume of flavour than the Estate, even though alcohol is similar; all share the elements of spice and cracked pepper that make these wines so special. $80. Rating : 96 Points"

2006 PENFOLDS St Henri Claret $230

Campbell Mattinson : The pure, blueberry-like flavour ... helps make the wine taste incredibly delicious. It has lovely concentration, elements of spice and dried herbs, and yet it's still very much a pure, ripe, South Australian red. Balance and class. Drink from 2015 ". Rating : 95 Points [11% Cabernet]

2007 PENFOLDS St Henri Claret $230

Campbell Mattinson : "100% shiraz matured for 12 months in 50 year-old vats. It smells beautifully of violets, plums, blueberries & spice. Rather enchanting. What impresses most is its length - it swirls out through the finish, trailing big ribbons of tannin. It is medium weight at most. I think this St Henri has a significant future ahead of it"

2007 ROCKFORD "Basket Press" Barossa Valley Shiraz $285

Huon Hooke : "There is some forward development in colour, bouquet and palate, but the wine is utterly charming and very complex. There are raisin, dark chocolate, blackberry aromas and hints of squashed ants (formic acid). It's deliciously supple and lush on the palate, full-bodied and softly textured, smooth and seductive. A very more-ish drink, now showing very attractive maturity. Rating : 95 Points "

2007 TORBRECK "Woodcutters" Barossa Valley Shiraz $185

Campbell Mattinson : "Perfectly pitched wine. It's sweet and lightish, but it has tannin and class, its mix of raspberried, spicy, earthen flavours tremendously easy to hook into. A good, juicy hit of flavour and a good, juicy finish - it's lovely. Perfect winegrowing and winemaking. Rating : 90 Points "

2008 d'ARENBERG "Dead Arm" McLaren Vale Shiraz $300

Ray Jordan : "The vintage dictated this would be a riper and even more concentrated Dead Arm than usual. The powerful nose releases a wild mix of spices, floral notes and supersaturated dark plum, with plum and mulberry balanced by dried herbs and savoriness. The gripping opening moves into the palate to reveal even more riches. Long cellaring life ahead of it. Rating : 97 Points "

2008 ROCKFORD "Basket Press" Barossa Valley Shiraz $285

Berry Bros & Rudd : "Deceptively light in colour, with a broad (brick) rim. The nose is full of plum, loganberry, hint of leather, mocha, espresso bean. A smooth, beautifully integrated rich-bodied palate. Firm acidity, dusty tannins. The balance is impeccable, traditional Barossa indeed but not in the overly extracted style, a laid back style but far from facile – this is superb and a joy to drink now but will age effortlessly over the next few decades . 2018 – 2025+ "

WF

2009 PENFOLDS St Henri Claret $240

Wine Spectator : "Supple, with nubby tannins around a gorgeous core of currant and pomegranate, the flavors floating easily into the long, expressive finish, hinting at green tea and guava as the finish rolls on serenely. Shows intensity without density, coming together seamlessly. Drink now through 2025. Rating : 94 Points"
